

mPower ECHO Network

COVID-19 Evaluation Findings

Background & Aim: A community of practice for mPower which encourages learning and collaboration across sectors & sites is established.

Increased knowledge of service provision and how to overcome any challenges.

Shared understanding of what is good practice in relation to mPower priority area.

Development of standards of what is good practice.

9 ECHO Sessions

33 participants on average

26 Education Presentations

Benefits of ECHO participation during the Pandemic

71% Agreed or Strongly Agreed that ECHO helped to support the adaptation of their practice during the COVID pandemic

81% Agreed or Strongly Agreed that ECHO supported their Quality of Practice & Care to patients/services

67% Agreed that ECHO helped improve their confidence in keeping up-to-date with evolving guidelines, processes and changes to practice during the Pandemic

75% Agreed that ECHO was either Very or Extremely Helpful compared to other online and virtual approaches to learning that they may have encountered during the course of the pandemic

Evaluation Findings

Did participating in the ECHO network support your personal/professional wellbeing during COVID pandemic?

